I. During the course of my employment, I was subjected to unequal terms and conditions of employment, the last incident occurring on or about February 28, 2003, when I was terminated from my teaching position at the McKinley Adult Community School. I was employed since 1988 and was working as a Home and Hospital Tutor and GED Instructor, earning $14.39 hourly.

II. In Spring 2002, Virginia Soares, Windward District Secretary, told me that I was taken off the case of a pregnant student because I am a male and this student is a female. Sarah Gronah, Vice Principal at Castle High School, told me that males cannot tutor pregnant students. Ira Ilson, Counselor at Castle High School, told me that he wouldn't be able to assign me a pregnant student to tutor because Ms. Gronah told him that no male may tutor a female student.

When I asked for more assignments, Ms. Gronah told me that I have one assignment already and that's it. Regarding not being allowed to attend IEP meetings for my students, Mr. Soares told me that Ms. Gronah told her that I cannot attend because I am not the student's teacher—I'm only their tutor. No reasons were given as to why the course work was increased and the tutoring hours decreased.

Ms. Sampei, Principal of the McKinley Adult Community School, told me that my class was ending early because attendance was falling off.

III. I believe that I was subjected to unequal terms and conditions of employment and terminated because of my sex, male, and in retaliation for my opposing the sex discrimination. This is in violation of Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 378. My beliefs are based on the following:

- A. During the course of my employment, I was subjected to the following unequal terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to: in Spring 2002, my tutoring assignment was taken from me; not assigned any more tutoring cases; not allowed to attend the IEP meetings of my student; tutoring hours were decreased per course and I was not informed of this.
- B. After I was taken off the case of my female student, I informed Ms. Soares that this is illegal. She told me that I would be assigned other cases. However, after I opposed the sex discrimination, I did not receive any more new tutoring cases.

C. I also spoke to Sarah Gronah, Vice Principal of Castle High School, Meredith Maeda, Principal of Castle High School, and Marty Matison, Educational Specialist at the Windward District Office. I told each of them that it was illegal to discriminate against me because of my gender.

D. Not long after my complaining to the Castle Administration about my being discriminated against because of my gender, I was terminated from my teaching position at the McKinley Adult Community School.

E. Attendance to my class was not falling off.

F. My job performance was more than satisfactory.
